Study at VHL: Master of Management in Development - Rural Development and HIV/AIDS in Wageningen

Graduated: October 2009

Current job: Program Coordinator for an NGO

My function is to facilitate communities to manage development programmes in a manner that there is evidence of people's lives being transformed, community based and sustainable. Coordinating and managing the team of 25 people with different skills: professional accountants, development workers, professional environmentalists, professional agriculturalists etc. in all issues related to project implementation.

Relation to study at VHL:

There are two important areas which are: rural development and HIV/AIDS. This is actually what my NGO is doing in the field. Therefore the course I studied has direct links with my current work
