Study at VHL: European MBA in Food & Agribusiness in Velp and Cirencester, UK

Graduated: July 2005 - Certificate granted by Royal Agricultural College

Current job: “After graduating from Van Hall Larenstein in the Netherlands and the UK , I have made good progress in my career development. My MBA programme equipped me with the skills and knowledge I needed to work as an Assistant Product and Training Manager for a nutraceutical company and as a Trade Marketing Manager for a large international consumer goods company. I have now progressed to a specialist role as Sales Supervisor in a multinational pharmaceutical company. My time at Van Hall Larenstein gave me knowledge and confidence to deal with the challenges of global business.”
